OUT OF STATE FUGITIVE APPREHENDED

On February 15th, 2011, the Fort Lauderdale Police Department Fugitive Unit, in conjunction with the FBI Fugitive Task Force, arrested William Bozman Jr., W/M, 7/23/66. Bozman Jr. was apprehended at 104 Southwest 21 Way in the City of Fort Lauderdale.

Bozman Jr. was wanted in connection to a Homicide and Attempted Armed Home Invasion Robbery that occurred on March 28th, 2010, at his father's residence in Baltimore County, Maryland.

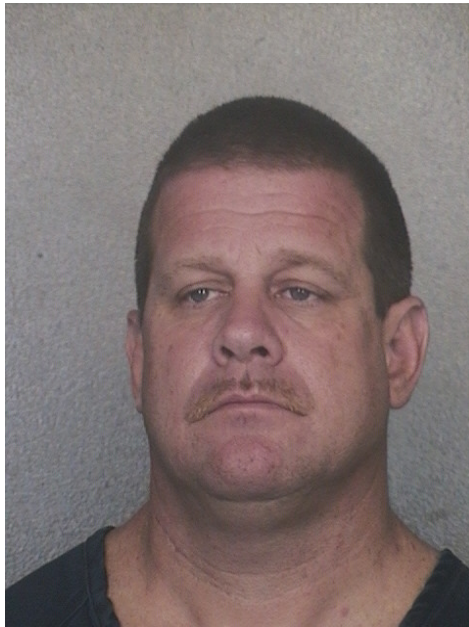

One suspect, identified as Marvin Cook, B/M, 30 years of age, entered into the Baltimore residence, armed with a handgun, and confronted the sleeping homeowner, William Bozman Sr. Cook demanded money and ordered Bozman Sr. to open a safe, at which point a violent struggle ensued. Bozman Sr. was able to arm himself with a firearm and shot Cook. Cook later succumbed to the gunshot wounds he sustained while committing the robbery.

The Baltimore County Police Department Homicide Division conducted an investigation which revealed a co-conspirator in the Armed Robbery. The co-conspirator was identified as William Bozman Jr. On February 7th, 2011, Bozman Jr. was indicted and fugitive warrants were issued for his arrest.

Bozman Jr. is currently being held without bond and is awaiting extradition to Maryland.

Bozman Jr. has been charged with the following counts:

- 1) Attempted Armed Home Invasion Robbery With Dangerous/Deadly Weapon
- 2) Conspiracy to commit Armed Robbery
- 3) Burglary First Degree
- 4) Conspiracy to commit Burglary First Degree
- 5) Assault First Degree
- 6) Conspiracy to Commit Assault First Degree
- 7) Handgun Use During Felony Violent Crime
- 8) Wear/Carry and Transport Handgun
