MISSING ELDERLY FEMALE

UPDATE (7/22/11):

At approximately 4:00 P.M., Fort Lauderdale Police Officers located Anna Jack at Southeast 1st Avenue and Davie Boulevard in the City of Fort Lauderdale. Officers observed a woman matching the description of Jack sitting underneath a tree near the intersection and were able to confirm her identity as the missing tourist.

Jack has been reunited with her family and is in good health.

ORIGINAL (7/22/11):

The Fort Lauderdale Police Department is searching for an endangered missing elderly woman who was last seen on July 21st, 2011, at approximately 6:00 P.M. The woman's last known whereabouts were at the Sheraton Yankee Clipper Hotel located at 1140 Seabreeze Boulevard in the City of Fort Lauderdale. The family reported her missing at approximately 11:30 A.M. on July 22nd, 2011, after they could not locate her in the hotel room.

The elderly woman has been identified as a Scottish vacationer named Anna Thornburn Jack. Jack has been described as a white female, 5'6" in height, approximately 150 pounds, 78 years of age, and was last seen wearing a tan long sleeve shirt, tan pants, and a black purse. Jack has distinct short white hair and speaks with a Scottish accent.

Investigators believe that Jack suffers from dementia and is considered endangered at this time. After reviewing hotel surveillance footage, investigators now believe that Jack wandered off from the Sheraton Yankee Clipper Hotel sometime around 8:30 A.M. on July 22nd, 2011.

Investigators are urging anyone with information regarding the whereabouts of Jack, to immediately contact the Fort Lauderdale Police Department at 954-828-5700.
