ATTEMPTED MURDER

On January 10th, 2012, Fort Lauderdale Police Detectives arrested Clarence Hall, B/M, 9/6/93, a Fort Lauderdale resident, in connection to an attempted murder case that occurred on December 11th, 2011, at approximately 2:00 P.M. The attempted murder occurred at the Nada Market located at 1300 Northwest 6th Street in the City of Fort Lauderdale.

After a thorough investigation, detectives learned that on December 11th, 2011, an altercation broke out between Hall and two patrons of the market. When the two patrons, Timara Wimber and a juvenile, attempted to leave the store in their car, Hall began kicking and hitting Wimber's vehicle. Hall then briefly reached into the vehicle and began physically assaulting the juvenile in the back seat. After being assaulted, both Wimber and the juvenile attempted to leave the scene in their vehicle. Hall then threw a brick at the front windshield of the vehicle as Wimber was driving off, shattering the windshield glass.

The shattering of glass caused Wimber to lose control of the vehicle and crash into a bystander, Mohammad Al-Attar, pinning him against a pole in front of the store. Hall then fled the scene prior to police arrival.

Al-Attar was immediately transported to Broward General Medical Center where he was initially listed in critical condition due to the injuries he sustained. Since then, Al-Attar has recovered, but nearly lost his life as a result of Hall's actions.

Detectives were able to retrieve surveillance footage that captured the incident.

Hall has been charged with the following:

- 1) Attempted Felony Murder
- 2) Burglary with Assault or Battery
- 3) Throwing a missile into Dwelling or Vehicle
- 4) Criminal Mischief over $1000.00

Investigators are urging anyone with further information about the attempted murder to contact Detective Jason Wood at 954-828-5344 or Broward County Crime Stoppers at 954-493-TIPS.
