MISSING PERSON

The Fort Lauderdale Police Department is searching for a missing adult male who was last seen leaving Broward General Medical Center, located at 1600 South Andrews Avenue in the City of Fort Lauderdale, on June 17th, 2012.

The male has been identified as Alfred Golden, B/M, 7/27/60, a Fort Lauderdale resident. Golden has been known to leave home without warning, but would usually return to his residence within a couple of days.

Golden is approximately 5' 8" in height and 130 pounds in weight. Golden was last seen wearing a black t-shirt, black jeans, and blue and white sneakers.

Investigators are considering Golden endangered due to his medical conditions.

Investigators are urging anyone who may have seen Golden since June 17th, 2012, to contact Investigator Patricia Dube at 954-828-5547.
