The Fort Lauderdale Police Department is investigating an Armed Robbery that occurred on Sunday, September 15th at approximately 11:00 P.M. The incident occurred at the Shell Gas Station located at 1144 South Andrews Avenue in the City of Fort Lauderdale.

The suspect entered the store and approached the register requesting the key to the restrooms. When the suspect returned, the clerk asked the suspect to return the key and he responded by pointing a firearm at the clerk demanding the money in the register.

The clerk handed the suspect the US currency from the register and the suspect fled the area in a northern direction.

Latent prints and DNA were obtained from the scene and placed into evidence for further processing.

The suspect is being described as a B/M, approximately 20-30 years old, 5'8" in height, and 170 pounds in weight. The suspect was last seen wearing a red shirt and red shorts.

Detectives are urging anyone with further information regarding this armed robbery or the identity of the suspect to contact Detective Todd Hill at 954-828-5567 or Broward County Crime Stoppers at 954-493-TIPS.
