The Fort Lauderdale Police Department is investigating a larceny that occurred between the hours of 3:45 P.M. and 6:30 P.M on January 17th. The incident occurred at 642 Northwest 2nd Avenue in the City of Fort Lauderdale.

The victim received notification that a package was delivered by FedEx to his residence. When he returned home he was unable to locate the package and immediately reviewed his security surveillance system.

The victim's surveillance caught an unknown suspect walking up to his front porch, removing a package and fleeing from the area.

This remains an active and on-going investigation.

Anyone who recognizes this suspect or has information regarding similar incidents is encouraged to contact Detective Michael Gaffey at 954-828-4006.
