RESERVE OFFICER
FAREWELL

The Fort Lauderdale Police Department is proud to recognize Reserve Officer William “Bill” Smith. Reserve Officer Smith loyally served the Fort Lauderdale Police Department and the Fort Lauderdale community for more than three decades - leaving a lasting impression upon everyone who was fortunate enough to interact with him.

During his thirty-five year tenure, Reserve Officer Smith was presented with seven departmental commendations and four public commendations. He was often acknowledged for his cheerful, unselfish assistance to anyone he could help.

Fort Lauderdale Police Department Reserve Officers are part-time police officers, fully certified with the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, and are empowered to make arrests, issue traffic citations, and conduct investigations. Reserve Officer Smith dedicated countless hours to the Fort Lauderdale community for the sole reason of serving the residents of Fort Lauderdale.

The Fort Lauderdale Police Department thanks Reserve Officer Smith for his many years of dedicated service to the residents of the City of Fort Lauderdale. We congratulate Bill and wish him the best of luck in all of his future endeavors.
