FLPD
Mounted Unit's
Horses Retire

Fort Lauderdale Police Mounted Unit's horses, El Capitan and Zachariah, have decided to turn in their police uniforms and retire. The celebration will be held at the Fort Lauderdale Police Department's Barn, located at 700 Northeast 9th Street in the City of Fort Lauderdale on Wednesday, October 7th at 11:30 A.M.

El Capitan was donated to our city in 2005 and has served our citizens for 10 years. Zachariah was donated to our city in 2007, also as a private donation and has spent the last 8 years serving our citizens. The impact that El Capitan and Zachariah have made on our city by patrolling our neighborhoods, beaches, and the downtown areas cannot be measured.

El Capitan will be enjoying retirement at Mill Creek Farm Retirement for Horses located in the County of Alachua, Florida. Zachariah will be returning home to family for retirement located in the City of South West Ranches.

Please join us in wishing them a much deserved retirement.
