CHILD PORNOGRAPHY
ARREST

On June 21st at approximately 3 p.m., Fort Lauderdale Police Department detectives in conjunction with the South Florida Internet Crimes Against Children (ICAC) Task Force, arrested an individual for possession and transmission of child pornography.

Detectives received information from the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, which indicated an individual was using internet connections throughout the city of Fort Lauderdale to transmit illicit images of children. Search warrants were obtained for the cell phone and email accounts of this individual.

The individual was then identified as Sean K. Grealy, W/M, 4/25/1989, a resident of Wilton Manors.

On June 21st, FLPD detectives along with ICAC Task Force members located Grealy at 325 NE 21st Court in the city of Wilton Manors. Grealy's cell phone was found in his possession and searched pursuant to the warrant. A search of Grealy's cell phone and laptop computer yielded over twenty images of child pornography. These images depicted children as young as 3 years old engaged in sexual acts with adult males.

Grealy was taken into custody and charged with the following:

- 10 Counts of Possession of Child Pornography
- 1 Count of Distribution/Transmission of Child Pornography
- 1 Count of Compile/Collect Computer Child Pornography
- 1 Count of Promoting the Sexual Performance of a Child

This investigation is ongoing and additional charges may be forthcoming pending the outcome of forensic electronic examinations. Anyone with information regarding this investigation is encouraged to contact Detective Robert Mauro at 954-888-1570, Broward Crime Stoppers at 954-493-TIPS (8477), or The National Center for Missing and Exploited children at 1-800-The-Lost.
