ATTEMPTED ABDUCTION

The Fort Lauderdale Police Department is investigating an attempted abduction of an 11-year-old child. This attempt occurred today before school began in the 3100 block of Northwest 19th Street.

Preliminary investigations have revealed that a B/M pulled alongside the victim as she was walking to school. The culprit was able to grab the victim and try to pull her inside the vehicle. The victim managed to break free and proceeded to school where the incident was reported to police.

The suspect has been described as a B/M possibly in his 30s, medium cropped hair, medium complexion, clean-shaven, and largely built. He was last seen driving a white 4-door vehicle with tints.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is encouraged to contact Detective Lisa Cahir at 954-828-5964 or Broward Crime Stoppers 954-493-TIPS.
