MISSING JUVENILES

The Fort Lauderdale Police Department is attempting to locate two missing juveniles who left a residence at 8:00pm yesterday, August 2, 2008, and have not returned.

Breanne Wright, 14, and her cousin Ciara Humphrey, 4, left Breanne's residence located at 1608 NW 4th Street at approximately 8:00pm. Breanne's parents refused to allow her to go to a party earlier in the evening; detectives are looking into whether Breanne went anyway. While her parents didn't notice, Breanne left with Ciara without the consent or approval of either of their parents. As of this time, Breanne and Ciara have not returned home nor contacted family members.

It should be noted that although foul play is not suspected, detectives are requesting help from the public in locating the girls.

Breanne Wright is described as 5'7", 125#, medium complexion, last seen wearing a black shirt and blue jeans.

Ciara Humphrey is described as 3'6", 40#, medium complexion, last seen wearing an orange skirt and a white shirt with multi-colored butterflies on it. She is wearing white Reeboks.

Anyone with information regarding the whereabouts of the girls is encouraged to contact the Fort Lauderdale Police Department at 954-828-5700 or 911 as an alternate.
