“COMMANDER”
RETIRES
FROM MOUNTED UNIT

The Fort Lauderdale Police Mounted Unit horse, Commander, has decided to turn in his police uniform and retire. The Fort Lauderdale Police Department's Barn has been Commander's home since 2008. The barn is located at 700 Northeast 9th Street in the City of Fort Lauderdale.

Commander was donated to our city and has served our department along with our neighbors for 9 years. The impact that Commander has made in our city by patrolling our neighborhoods, beaches, and the downtown areas cannot be measured.

Commander will be enjoying his retirement at Retirement Home for Horses, Inc. The retirement home is located at Mill Creek Farm in the County of Alachua, Florida. For more information on the retirement home for horses visit; <http://millcreekfarm.org/>
