Bank of America Robbery

On Wednesday, June 4, 2008 at approximately 2:00pm, an unknown male robbed the Bank of America bank located at 4012 North Ocean Boulevard.

According to detectives, the suspect entered the bank wearing a hat and sunglasses and approached the bank teller with a note. The note stated that he was armed and demanded money. The teller complied with the request and turned over the case to the suspect.

It is believed that this incident may be related to several other bank robberies that have occurred throughout Broward County area.

The suspect has been described as a black male, over 6' tall, 180#, wearing a dark colored suit, black shirt.
