MISSING CHILD & GRANDMOTHER

The Fort Lauderdale Police Department is requesting help from the public in locating a missing 2-Year-old girl and her grandmother, who suffers from Alzheimer's. The child's name is Tashonni Jones, 8/24/2005, B/F, black hair, and brown eyes. The child was last seen wearing a pink jumpsuit/sweatshirt. She has white braids in her hair and her suit had either "cutie" or "pretty" written on it.

The grandmother is Ludie Jones, 03/31/1936, B/F, black hair, and brown eyes. The grandmother was last seen wearing a red, white, and black long sleeved shirt with blue jeans. Ludie also had a pink baby bag over her shoulder.

The grandmother and grandchild left from 305 NW 12 Avenue, Fort Lauderdale, at approximately 12:30 P.M. The grandmother took her grandchild after she had been involved in a disturbance with their caretaker. The two were last seen at 2162 NW 6 Street, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, at approximately 2:15 P.M.

Anyone who may have information on the whereabouts of Ludie Jones or Tashonni Jones is encouraged to contact the Fort Lauderdale Police Department at 954-828-5700 or Broward County Crime Stoppers at 954-493-TIPS.
