UPDATE 3.28.22: On March 26, 2022, Massachusetts State Police troopers located the suspect in this case and his female accomplice.

The suspect is identified as Kimani Brown, DOB 10/16/1998, a resident of the city of Hollywood. He is being charged with first degree murder and two counts of aggravated battery with a deadly weapon related to this incident.

The female involved has been identified as Shaniyah Kressin, DOB 06/24/2004, a resident of the city of Fort Lauderdale. At this time, she is not facing any charges related to this incident however this is an ongoing investigation.

ORIGINAL 10.20.20: The Fort Lauderdale Police Department is investigating a shooting that occurred on Saturday, October 17, 2020 at approximately 2:10 p.m. The incident occurred at the Broward Central Bus Terminal located at 101 Northwest 1st Avenue in the City of Fort Lauderdale.

Preliminary investigation has revealed an unknown female had a brief interaction with the victim across the street from the bus terminal. Following that conversation, the female walked across the street to the bus terminal and spoke to the shooter. When the victim entered the bus terminal, a few minutes later, the male suspect immediately fired multiple shots striking the victim as well as two innocent bystanders. Both the female and the armed male suspect fled the area in a southbound direction, towards Riverwalk along the New River waterway. The suspects were captured on security cameras along the Riverwalk, prior to getting into a nearby vehicle and leaving the area.

All three victims were transported to Broward Health Medical Center. The bystanders received non-life-threatening injuries, with one still recovering in Broward Health Medical Center and the other released.

The victim, who was the intended target, succumbed to his injuries later Saturday evening. He has been identified as Davonta Gaines, B/M, 6/2/1992, a resident of the City of Fort Lauderdale.

This remains an active and on-going investigation.
