FLPD ARRESTS ARMED ROBBERY DUO

The Fort Lauderdale Police Department is investigating an armed robbery that occurred on Sunday, May 1st, at approximately 5:30 p.m. The incident occurred in the 300 block of Northwest 1st Avenue in the City of Fort Lauderdale.

Preliminary investigation has revealed the victim, an adult male, was at the location to meet with a female he had met the day before. While walking together in the area, the victim was approached by an unknown male suspect. The suspect threw the victim on the ground, brandished a firearm and demanded the victim's belongings. The suspect then began to strike the victim in the head with the firearm. The male suspect, and the female who was initially with the victim, then left the area together.

A short time later, with the assistance of FLPD's Operations Center, the suspects were seen entering a nearby business. Patrol officers immediately responded to that business and were able to take the suspects into custody without incident.

The suspects have been identified as Jamaris J. Coleman, B/M, DOB 03/22/2001 and Faith T. German, B/F, DOB 07/31/2001, residents of the City of Hollywood. They are both charged with armed robbery with a firearm and Coleman faces an additional charge for aggravated battery.

The identity of the victim in this incident will not be released.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is encouraged to contact Detective R. Ijames at 954-828-5567 or Broward Crime Stoppers at 954-493-TIPS (8477).
