STRONG-ARM ROBBERY

***Video is Available***

The Fort Lauderdale Police Department is investigating a strong-arm robbery that occurred on June 11, 2009 at approximately 5:40 P.M. The robbery occurred at 3635 Davie Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

Preliminary investigation has revealed that the victim was at the United Check Cashing store to pay a phone bill. Upon exiting the store, the victim was attacked by a black male. The male suspect took her purse forcefully from her and ran to a gray vehicle, which was waiting to exit the parking lot. The vehicle appears to be a Dodge Stratus.

The victim lost her purse and the contents inside. Some of the contents included US Currency, two gold chains, a watch, and credit cards.

Anyone with information regarding this robbery is encouraged to contact Detective Richard Rivera at 954-828-6433 or Broward County Crime Stoppers at 954-493-TIPS.
